Rats go where people live.
Sometimes you go out to the storehouse of the house, sometimes you can scour the garbage outside. In places where there is plenty of food, it is fat like a cat.

In particular, old kimonos were made of silk, so rats sometimes bite and ruin the kimono. This spirit is said to have the effect of avoiding rats.

Nowadays, it is not uncommon for rats to be bitten clothes, but since it is a living creature in the human living area, it is better to put it on a garbage storage place.

[Column]
The "gold and silver" in the name of this sign does not refer to a single precious metal. Since ancient times, gold and silver have been symbols of unchanging value and brilliance, and in turn represent “wealth,” “assets,” and “all valuable things.”

And "entry" means that the value of these things flows firmly into the "home" that is the base of your own life and the place of family peace, and it means that it flows firmly and stays.

This is a talisman with a vital wish for life used to deal with the extremely dangerous situation of women giving birth, especially difficult births.

"Birth disembarkation" refers to the state of difficult childbirth, that is, the fetus does not come down easily even if the delivery begins.

The most distinctive feature of this note is its usage. The act of burning a piece and drinking it ashes is an attempt to break through the inside by bringing the spiritual power of the pout into the body.

In Japan, there is a traditional culture of drinking bills such as "Senmai-dori Street" on Mt. Koya and burning yakufu and ash. The person who is always having nightmares and has a scandal at home, this sign is a spiritual mark that disappears naturally.

[Column]
The "sleep" that heals our daily fatigue sometimes reflects the anxiety that lurks deep in the deep part of our consciousness, and afflicts us in the form of "nightmare".

A dream is not just a false image, but a sign of the future or a message from the invisible world.

Therefore, the state of "always having nightmares" was seen as an ominous omen, not just a bad sleep, but an ominous precursor with the combination of bad luck and unhappiness of reality behind it.

The "Trussant Dream Dissent Foot" introduced this time is a talisman to quell such mental pain and the subsequent seriousness of the reality.

Possession of this mark or affixing it to a particular place, such as a bedroom, means that the spiritual power of the sign provides a "boundary" to protect the soul from bad spirits and spiritual interference while asleep.

Of particular note is the phrase "disappears naturally."
This suggests a very gentle and sure effect that the action of the pout is not an artificial effort or a forceful counter-offer, but quietly quells the root of malice, and as a result, the bad luck of reality is calmed like a ripple.

In modern society, nightmares are associated with stress and mental disorders, but nevertheless, when faced with unexplained

If you paste this mark, it will be a spiritual figure that will escape the difficulty.

[Column]
Since ancient times, one of the most real threats to people's lives has been the looting of property by bandits and the risks to their lives.

The theft was seen as a very ominous event that fundamentally overturned the foundation of life and peace of mind, as well as the economic blow of losing money and goods.

The "Town Thieves" introduced this time is a talisman to protect the house and family from the threat of such a specific crime and to restore peace of mind.

Even in modern society, we take various crime prevention measures, but even so, the threat of crime such as home invasion and theft does not disappear.
How encouraging a talisman like this "Town Thieves" was for those who couldn't introduce expensive security systems?

The desire to "avoid the hardships of bandits and protect a peaceful life" contained in this mark is universal beyond the times. It is a symbol of the earnest desire of human beings, who seek not only material safety, but also the night when they can sleep with peace of mind, the days when they can live peacefully, which is the basis of their lives.

The old talisman raises the fundamental question of how much we seek in our daily lives.

When an epidemic spreads in the residential area, you should copy it and attach it to the center of the house to prevent infection.

[Column]
In the old days, it was believed that diseases were caused by invisible "dirty" and "ogres". Therefore, it was a barrier in the house, preventing bad things from entering.

The situation in which this mark should be used is not when a specific personal illness is at risk of a public health crisis, which is a "communicable disease" that spreads throughout the region.

Transcribe with care and respect for the full force of the sign. It is important to put in the strong will and faith of the individual to reject the disease.

And the center of the house is the "need" that affects every room. By putting a mark here, the intention of defense is to put a barrier throughout the house and stop the disease that tries to penetrate from the outside.

When a strange epidemic begins to spread, use this mark to exorcise the disease.

[Column]
Since ancient times, people have paid close attention to preserving the "sacred place" where gods and Buddhas dwell as specially purified places and to preserve their sacredness.

The Daimon Gate, the entrance to the sacred place, was an important boundary that separated the holy world from the world and the world, and the inside was considered to be a place where it should be kept particularly unfilial.

This mark speaks of the deep fear of the people at the time against "filiality" and the wisdom to overcome it.
The filth of the sacred place of the sacred place, which is a sacred place, is a blasphemy against its spiritual power, and at the same time casts an ominous shadow on the hearts of the people who gather there.

He ascended to the floor of the dog, and there were various ominous diseases in the house, and if this sign was attached to the gate, it was finally a sacred plaque to suppress the yuki.

[Column]
"Floor" refers to the space where people live, such as sleeping beds, living rooms, and tatami rooms. It was thought that the dog's rise to the place itself was an act that disrupted the invisible order that exists in the house.

A dog ascending on the floor is considered a matter of discipline in modern times, but in the context of this verse, it was interpreted as an action guided by the dog's own will, not by the will of the dog himself, but by some evil or ominous "ki".

Therefore, the original purpose of this mark is not to quell the behavior of the dog itself, but to quell the "bad luck" that causes the behavior. This shows the way people at that time thought, not just coping therapy, but aimed at solving the root cause.

The gate is the entrance to the house, the boundary separating the outside and the interior. By putting a mark on it, it has a powerful defense intention to strengthen the barrier of the house and prevent the invasion of bad things and ominous qi from the root.

And it shows a clear effect of strongly suppressing the "Oji" itself, which was the root of the dog's suspicious behavior, and restoring family peace.

Dogs are originally sharp smells and hearings that detect and bark at human beings.

However, it was thought that it was not just a matter of imagination that continued to bark in the space where no one was supposed to be, but evidence that there was something invisible to humans, such as ghosts, evil spirits, or ominous "ki", there was evidence that there was something invisible to humans.

It is important that the place to be pasted is designated as "Daidokoro (Kitchen)".

The kitchen was seen as a place of fire and food, especially in the house as a sacred place full of vitality and energy. It is also the center of the home and an important space that supports the health and prosperity of the family.

By putting a mark on it, it is thought that it was intended to strengthen the barrier of the whole house, prevent the entry of the bad things, or to purify the evil things that already existed.

This is a sacred note that avoids the disaster if there is a customer with a foreign surname in the house and the result of mourning in the form of a relationship with the customer.

Adultery is false, evil, and prostitute. This wicked woman is called Rokubu, and it is a sign of spirituality that turns the adulterous person in the inner heart and suppresses it.

[Column]
In the human mind, sometimes there is "ultery" that cannot be suppressed by reason, that is, malice such as false, evil, and lewdness lurks.

This inner darkness has the power to destroy human relationships, disturb the peace of the family, and, in turn, shake the order of society.
In particular, when that malice is hidden in a form that is hard to see from the surface, and the person who skillfully carries things brings disaster to the home, people entrusted the solution to this sleek.

"Intruity" here refers not only to the relationship between a man and a woman, but also to a complex vice, such as "falsehood" in human relationships, "evilness" of the mind, and ethical "disruption". And it suggests the existence of clever malice that hides these multiple malice and attempts to harm the home and others behind the scenes, even though it appears mild on the surface.

This mark has the effect of quelling and suppressing the malice of such an adulterous person, especially a person who is considered a "villain", or a calamity that may be caused by its malice.

In today's society, problems such as betrayal, jealousy, and conspiracies in human relationships continue to exist. This sign is a woman's evil, and if you have a copy of this sign, it is a spiritual mark that does not break the husband's house.

[Column]
Since ancient times, marriage has been an extremely important activity in which two "houses" are connected at the same time as the connection between two individuals. In particular, the woman who was welcomed as a daughter-in-law shouldered a major role and expectation of building the peace of the family by connecting the bloodline of the new house.

Putting people into the house means putting a new destiny into the family.
If a person who has a fateful "indulner" that causes a fatal disaster for the family enters the family, this mark is used to quell the impact.

[Column]
Meeting loved ones in life is a great joy, and the "marriage" that connects them is full of hope for a new family and a future.

However, sometimes even though they love each other deeply, a vague "disturbing shadow" may be inserted into the marriage.

In particular, there are cases where parents objected for no reason, or strange frictions occurred between the two families. On the other hand, even though they are not enthusiastic, the two families are enthusiastic about it.

The ancients found the existence of a fateful "satsu" called "bone marrow breaking" at the root of these invisible anxiety.

"Twenty-one bone marrow baptism" is a spiritual figure to calm down this "neopharybic anxiety" itself and break off the negative impact.

This mark is to "hold the evil" by "taking it to both men and women" between the person, and the cause of anxiety is removed.

As a result, it is said that there is a possibility that the relationship will go in a better direction and will be connected with peace of mind, and if it is really bad, it may be clear and gently cut the relationship.

In any case, the biggest effect of this mark is that it eliminates anxiety and prevents bad luck from being brought to the house.

This can affect personal fortunes and disrupt family peace.

In particular, for people who are said to carry the luck of bad luck such as "white robe killing" at a certain birth or time, it was a desperate wish to calm the evil and protect themselves from the dangers hidden in daily life.

The "Zin Steel Sweeping Broomsticks" introduced this time is a talisman to protect the grace that is the foundation of life by "cleansing" such evils.

"Shiragi-satsu" is said to bring disaster related to young lives and families in particular. It is said that those with white robes are more likely to miscarry or be preceded by their wives and children.

[Column]
In Japan, the "white robe" in the negative name is sometimes associated with the color of death costumes, but here we suggest the kinds of invisible evil spirits and evil spirits that lead to death and illness, especially disasters related to children.

"Worrying" refers to bad luck or illness caused by some invisible force or causal condition.

"Yoshi" often refers to the death of young people, especially infants and children.

From the fact that it is said to be "sick", it suggests a situation where the life of the child is threatened by an unexplained illness or a lingering disease.

Since ancient times, "needles" have been used as an amulet and as a tool for boundary. The number seven books also often has magical meanings (seven lucky gods, seven days, etc.).

Our lives are affected by the invisible cyclical flow of qi. Every year, the direction and timing of good fortune and evil rotates, and it affects people's fortunes and their own safety.

"劒鋒殺" is a fateful disaster that is difficult to avoid, not a temporary "wind" that appears in a specific direction or time, but a cycle of time (every year, monthly).

Taking inappropriate actions or unintentionally falling under the influence of the "swept" in the timing and direction of "劒鋒殺" is considered to be affected the same as "heavy mourning". The death of a parent means the death of a parent.

In order to calm this down, we make a doll that becomes a magical object to scrape the tree, replace it, or change the disaster, and put it in the outer box (like a coffin). By burying this mark in the grave with the doll and the outer box, you can avoid disasters.

Again, I reject that pain.

[Column]
For humans, “life” and “death” were two sides of the same coin, but at the same time, they were areas that should be strictly distinguished.

In particular, "pregnant women" who have a new life in their lives have been the most clean and protected since ancient times as a symbol of life that continues into the future.

To witness the "funeral" of such a pregnant woman to mourn the death of a person was to directly intersect the two forces of life and death, and it was deeply abominable and hated.

The Holy Mother, who nurtures new life, was more afraid that touching the filth of death would have a negative impact on the fetus and mother (such as miscarriage, stillbirth, and the birth of a sick child).

This mark serves as a spiritual and magical defense to ensure the safety of the mother and child and a healthy birth in such a situation where the boundaries between life and death are blurred.

Our lives are always built on the earth's blessings. Build a house, dig a well, and grow crops. In all of that, we involve digging up the ground and moving the soil.

However, these acts are not just labor, but they stimulate not only the invisible beings that live on the earth, that is, certain "bad spirits" such as gods, spirits, or "dosatsu", and have the potential to invite disasters by touching their anger.

First of all, what is "dosatsu"? This is a concept used in Onmyodo, Feng Shui, and Japanese folk beliefs, and refers to the direction and timing that brings bad spirits or disasters related to the land and direction. Specifically, it has the following meanings.

The curse of the god of the earth:
If you are in the mood for the god who controls the soil, there will be evil. Especially in the case of construction work to move the soil (civil engineering work, foundation work, digging wells, reburial of graveyards, etc.), it was thought that if the direction and timing were bad, it would be a disaster of "doso".

The bad direction and time:

teruko_jmyg [Apologetic savior]
This mark is a sacred note that calms the disasters caused by digging the land and moving the soil, and appreciates the safety of architecture and repairs.

[Column]
Our lives are always closely linked to the benefits of the earth. Build a house, dig a well, and grow crops. In all of this, the act of digging up the ground or making a hand on the ground is accompanied.

However, such an act is also "to commit the land", and by touching the anger of the gods and spirits that dwell in the soil, there may be a curse such as equipment failure or injuries.

This is a spiritual note to appreciate that such ominous things did not happen and that construction and repairs were not completed safely.

If the mother chicken is ominously and there are sufferings and troubles such as illness, calamity, loss, etc. in the house, it is a spiritual pix that extinguishes them.

[Column]
Our forefathers reacted sensitively to the subtle changes in nature and animals, and have found signs of good fortune there. In particular, chickens, which are familiar livestock, have become the object of various folk beliefs as beings that predict the future through their calls and actions.

This note, as the name implies, is intended to quell the calamity associated with the unusual calls of the hen.

At that time, people seemed to regard the abnormal cries of hens, especially at night and at times when they do not normally sound, not just as animal behavior, but as a "sign of misfortune that falls at home". The "agony" of disease epidemics, loss of property, or conflicts between families was associated with these calls, and it must have brought anxiety and fear to people.

In modern society, the tradition of such concrete animal calls has faded, but in our hearts there are still "uncanny premonitions" and "unexplained anxiety". The earnest prayer that prays for the peace of the family, which is contained in this sacred letter, seems to speak to us through the times, to quell the invisible disaster.

This is a sacred note that calms down the disasters if there are abnormal sparks from the light, if there is a suspicious fire color, or if there is a frequent disaster in the house.

[How to use]
Please put it on the gate.

[Column]
The "fire" that is indispensable to our lives has brought blessings since ancient times, and at the same time, it was also the source of terrible disasters.

Especially in Japan, where there were many wooden houses, once a fire caught fire, it caused serious damage in the blink of an eye, so the awe of fire and the prayer to calm it were deeply rooted.

The existence of this mark tells the story of what phenomena people at the time saw as a precursor to fires and how anxious they were. The phenomenon that the sparks of the light scattering abnormally, the color of the flame is different from the usual, or the frequent occurrence of unexplained fires, was recognized not as superstition, but as a dangerous sign that actually leads to fire.

"Zhinto Hakumeimeifu" was a means to relieve people's anxiety about the danger of fire that lurk in such daily life and to bring relief." The instruction to “put it on the gate” indicates that it was expected to play a role in preventing the entry of disasters from the outside as a protection for the entire house.

In modern times, we are relatively protected from the threat of fire by the enhancement of fire prevention equipment and firefighting systems. However, the causes of fires, such as the spread of electrical products and complex wiring, have

The Tango no Sekku was originally considered to be a time when evil spirits and disasters were easy to enter at the turn of the season, and it began as an event to ward off evil spirits.

In the past, when chemical fibers were not yet common, there were many sericulture farmers in various parts of Japan.

In addition, there were various faiths that prayed for a good harvest and safety, mainly in areas where sericulture was prosperous.

It is a silkworm that has been treated with such care, but it seems that there was also damage that rats ate silkworms in the past.

In addition, there are many poisonous creatures such as jellyfish and bonito eboshi in the sea.

At a time when medical care was still underdeveloped and it was believed that the disease was the work of plague gods and demons, people prayed for magic and prayer so that they would not get sick or lightened.

In addition, prayers for healing from illness are still held at shrines and temples throughout the country even today.

The "star of murder" is a concept in astrology.

If you are alive, there is a time to enter the following "zone".
・Easily injured or sick
・It is difficult for human relationships to work well
・Easily depressed

This has to do with the stars.
It is this spirit phrase that prevents the influence of these dead stars.

If there is a star, of course there is also a good star. This mark is not necessary when a good star is round.

[Column: Astrology]

It takes a buff that the medical effect will come out quickly.

In the modern era where medical care has developed, it may be an easy-to-use spiritual figure.

[Column:Rely on modern medical care in moderation]
In this account, we introduce spiritual signs, and we are sending out the power of the invisible world such as prayers.
Of course, it is necessary to improve the healing power by arranging the Ki.
On the other hand, I am not going to deny modern medicine.

If you are infected with viruses and bacteria, treat it in a well-balanced manner from both the visible world and the invisible world.

This stimulant is used as medicine to give to the sick.
Wishing for the healing of the disease, we will treat it from the invisible world by magic.

As the saying goes, “Sickness is qi” means “good or bad depending on the feeling” and “diseases arise from the mind”.

By processing it with a reifu, it can be a support for the heart.
God's protection is okay! It will be based on what you believe.

Of course, there is also the work of restoring Ki to normality with the effect of the spiritual pence.

However, it is still a great effect to change your consciousness.

This is a sleek that is said to heal a hundred diseases.

[How to use]
■Procedure
i'm going to write down two marks.
2 Remittances are reflected in the water.
3 Give the water to the sick to drink.

[Hundreds of diseases]
“Hundreds of diseases” means “all diseases.”
"Hundreds" have a nuance of "a lot of it anyway."

In an era when medical care was underdeveloped and medicine was difficult to obtain, prayers were often held.
Focusing on the invisible power of prayer, I tried to heal the disease by prayer.

In such an era, the spiritual figures of the treatment system are not specialized type, and many all-purpose types can be seen.
The ancients dreamed of a "pover-the-a-lifepocus" may have dreamed of dealing with an unexplained disease.

By the way, as a specialized healing spirit, there is "Spiritual to cure hiccups". I have introduced it on Instagram in the past, so please look for it.

In the past, due to the underdevelopment of medical care, it was easy for children to die in childhood, and such a mark was important in terms of the reassurance and support of the heart of parents.

In the old days of Japan, there are many stories of the contrast between a gentle old man and a mean-spirited old man.
A gentle old man is loved and cherished, and a mean-spirited old man is met with an unfortunate look.

This is a long-lived spiritual note.
Since it extends a healthy life expectancy, it will be easier to achieve your dreams and goals while you are healthy.

[How to use]
It is copied using ink rubbed with sacred spring water such as the back of the shrine.
Always possess it or enshrine it on the altar.

[Effects]
"Kotobuki Ju" has a double meaning of "long life" and "celebration".
In English, there is no word that directly means “blessing to live a long life.” The Japanese have long recognized the value of longevity and celebrated it.

The value of long life
1️⃣ Value of life
Celebrating longevity is based on the idea that life is scarce in itself, and it is based on the idea that the value of life is highly valued.

2️⃣ Experience and wisdom
The background to the culture that celebrates longevity is the respect for the experience and wisdom that can be gained by age. Experience and wisdom are a valuable resource for the entire community.
The ancient Greek philosophers also regarded the elders as the source of wisdom.

3️⃣ Spiritual growth
In Eastern philosophies, especially Buddhism and Taoism, longevity is associated with spiritual growth and enlightenment. Longevity is not only the extension of the physical body, but also the path to spiritual perfection.

On the other hand, in the "Analects" that describe the teachings of the Chinese thinker Confucius, there is a sentence that says "Futaka is like a floating cloud".
This was said about two and a half thousand years ago.

In addition, Dr. Yukichi Fukuzawa, the founder of Keio University and a well-known ten-thousand yen bill, also touches on a passage in the analgy of the analects in his book "Fukuo Hyaku Monogatari."

In this way, the riches do not last forever, but will one day be blown away by the wind and flow away.

This is a spiritual note that exorcises poverty and brings good fortune.

[How to use the spirit card]
Let's clean it and put it on the pillar or wall of the "room in the center of the house" such as the living room.

■Poverty (Hin)
The word “poor” refers to the lack of property and the difficulty of life.
In addition, even people who have a lot of wealth may say that they are poor in their hearts when they lack kindness and character for others. They call you friends, so you want to be rich.

• The evils of poverty
Not being able to afford money, that is, "free hope" puts a lot of stress on the mind.
When you put a lot of stress on your mind, your brain’s processing capacity decreases and you can’t afford it.

It can be said that one of the factors is that poor people are prone to situations where they "work at Gamshala anyway" because they can not afford their minds.
If you have room in your mind, you can devote your mental resources to reviewing your lifestyle habits and studying for qualifications. Rich people become richer in this way.

■Fuku
"Fuku" is a feeling that makes you feel happy.

■Goku (five virtues)
There is a five-fold idea.
The five virtues of 'Fukujurokukanin' refer to the five virtues of 'Fukujurokukanin'.

By deciphering what kind of stars are turning around every day and doing actions that match the timing, you will be able to efficiently open up your own life.

In addition, people whose lives are not good may have missed the timing of the star's turn, or they may have lost their way in the direction of their efforts.

The use of reifu is taught in the note circle "Teruko Sensei's Yatakarasu Magic School Main Course (Special Course)" in the circle of note.

This mark is a spiritual note that should be used in the case of shikonho.

"Utsutamaho" is a method of moving space-time with only a spiritual body.
It is said to be a secret in Miyaji Shinsen-do (the Imperial Palace).

It is said that if you master the envoy, you can reach various places while you are alive, but this sacred piece is used as a support to lead to the Senkai in particular.
I imagine holding this mark in my hand and closing my eyes to reach the sane world.

For details, I would like to contact Miyaji Shinsendo if you are interested.

This is a spiritual sign that means "calling the wind."
I pray that the wind blows, with this sign in the east in the spring, south in summer, west in autumn, and north in the winter.

The wind plays an important role that cannot be missed in life.
・Circulation and uniformity of air
・Natural pollination of plants
Adjusting the temperature.
・Rain clouds carry and encourage rain
etc.

When it becomes a big wind such as a typhoon, it strongly stirs the sea in the sea to spread nutrients and oxygen, and cultivate the blessings of the rich sea.

In addition, the presence of the wind is indispensable for the purification of the land.
When the wind stops blowing, the air stagnates and stagnates. This will make it easier to hide the darkness.
A good wind is always blowing, and it flows through the gloom and purifies the land. There is a good wind blowing in a good land.

teruko_jmyg [Excluded Fox Fox 霊符]

This is a sacred note that is enforced when four-legged animals, including foxes and raccoons, have a disability.
Put it in several places in the house. You can carry it with you according to the situation.

* Shoge is a Buddhist term that is used in the sense that invisible and bad things interfere.

Animal spirits are those in which animals that once lived with bodies die and become spirits and wander around the world. Animals have feelings and souls, so they are just as happy, angry, and resentful as humans.

When a person is possessed by an animal spirit, the following symptoms appear:
They will act without reason or character.
・Easier to be angry
Short-sighted and impulsive.
・Eat more dirty
The room gets dirty.
Be self-centered.
You become deeply dependent on something.

If you feel that the animal spirit is possessed, deal with it as follows:
・Spread the salt
・Doing assorted salt
・Immerse yourself in the bathtub
・Received at the shrine
Put this letter on your house.

This sign is used in a place where a mysterious feeling drifts.

A very suspicious checklist.
Sense
✔️ There is a sense of incongruity in the space
✔️ There is discomfort in the space
✔️It feels like the air is clinging to it
✔️Feeling creepy

Mood
✔️ Feelings are restless
✔️ Be anxious
✔️Oinous imagination crosses your mind

If there are a few of the above, there is a magic there.

If you are reading this post, you may be sensitive to the atmosphere and atmosphere of such an invisible place.

If you stay in a mysterious place for a long time, you will become strangely slack and mood will be negative.
(On the contrary, if you go to a place with yangki, you will be filled with energy.)

If you feel a sense of fad, put this mark on the spot or burn it with a fire.

・Things fall
・There is a sign that someone is there
・Feeling the eyes
etc.

I don't usually do a lot of real harm, but I'm somewhat distracted, so I've never been better off without a trickery of spirits.

■How to use

teruko_jmyg [Disaster Exclusion]

This is a spiritual sign that prevents the disaster of the living spirit and the dead spirit.
In the past, the reifu (spiritual note) written on it was sewn into the collar of the kimono to make it a talisman. Clothes are a custom of the times when it was not like washing like that.

Spirits often enter and exit from the base of the neck on the back side. By sewing it into the collar, it means to block the entrance. Nowadays, there are few people who wear kimono, so it is a good idea to always wear it so that it is always worn, such as by putting it in the inner pocket.

When it comes to clothing, do you know what “behind” is?
The kimono has a seam on the line of the spine. In the old days, Japanese people regarded this "needle seam" as "eyes". By putting "eyes" on the back, I stared at the monster that came from behind, and I believed that it had the effect of rejecting it.

However, children's kimonos only need a small amount of cloth, so the line may not enter the spine when making it.
Therefore, I decided to "protect the back" by attaching a mark like embroidery on the back.

Even in modern times, I sometimes see mothers embroidering on children's clothes.

生霊不来符

teruko_jmyg

teruko_jmyg [Spiritual furaifu]
This mark is not the spirit of the dead person, but the spirit mark used when the spirit (spirit) of a person who is currently alive with a physical body causes a curse for some reason.

The spirit usually flies to the other party in the unconscious, but the quality is good and bad.
A person with good thoughts (positive thoughts) protects and congratulates the other person.

On the other hand, the thought of a person with bad thoughts (negative thoughts) will curse and torment the other person.
Bad thoughts are often born from sticky, dull feelings, such as jealousy, dependence, and hatred. People who are flying negative spirits should be careful because their life force will be cut off.

Since this spirit pence has the effect of a barrier, let's put it on the living spirits of people with strong negative emotions.
It is a rule to put it on the front door.

てる子

This is a sleek that removes the vengeful spirit that makes the curse.

A vengeful spirit is a spirit or a dead spirit with resentment, hardship, and hatred of the actions you have received.
There is no real harm, but the vengeful spirit attacks the people who are alive today. There is real harm.

When a vengeful spirit is possessed, the mental state of the possessed person becomes unstable, he or she gets sick, or he or she causes unhappiness around him. The essence is the same as the troublesome customers encountered in the customer service industry.

It is best not to be able to keep an eye on such a troublesome spirit, but the important thing is "how to deal with it" when the eyes are seen.

First of all, it is effective to have a cheerful feeling, clean the room, and change the mood. Never give in to the spirit.

In addition, if you make this spiritual note, you can carry it with you or put it in the house.
Hit a strong negative with a strong positive. These things are almost thrilled. Let's blow away the negative thoughts of the vengeful spirit with a strong feeling.

祓霊符（ふつれいふ）

teruko_jmyg

teruko_jmyg [Erifu]
This mark is a spirit that exorcises the spirit of the living, dead, and evil spirits.

The spirit can be seen as having an energy tank.
Since there is a living human being (a person with a physical body), there is a stamina to the minute where life energy is injected. If you have a lot of negative emotions, they are troublesome.
There is a feature that the person's obsession does not disappear from the target.

※Of course, in the case of a living spirit with positive emotions, it will be protected as it is and protect the target. It is not “evil” just because it is a ghost.

Dead spirits and demons do not have an energy tank, but they have a characteristic that they cannot change without some opportunity because the intense emotions at the time of death are burned.
When you look at such an existence, you can be cursed and slow down, and it is a troublesome existence. It looks like a troublesome hitter or crammer.

If you are suffering from such a spirit, let us make and possess this spiritual instrument.
You can expect the effect of exorcising the spirit.

teruko_jmyg [Gogaku Chinke-fu, Kitadake-fu]

"Godake" means "Gokata" in the north-south center of east-west. This spirit has the effect of quelling the curse caused by the wrong direction.

Since ancient times, the direction has been said to be greatly related to good luck.
Specifically, depending on the state of the "magnetic field" of the month, the date and place, the fortunes (or in the number of people present) are easily dependent.
The direction is important in various academics and techniques such as Kimon Kaiko and geographical feng shui.

If you step into the direction of the evil, your luck will drop sharply. This can lead to instability and unhappiness in the home.
If you properly enshrine this sacred puja, you will be able to turn the evil of the evil one into Daikichi.

Also, when you go out at night, if you have this spirit, you will not be able to approach the evil thing.

Irritated

Why I'm annoyed...
Do you not mean to be meaningless and unrepentant?
Or maybe your family is angry.

When the family is frustrated, the feelings of disharmony are propagated, and it is easier to develop into quarrels and quarrels.
If you have such a thing at home where you should rest your mind and body and feed your energy, you will get tired on the contrary, so you need to take measures.

The Possession

Disruption of the autonomic nervous system leads to emotional instability.
It is often resolved by listening to the story in a quiet place, sleeping a lot, or exercising.

However, there are cases where there is a ghost (possession of evil spirits).
In that case, you may refuse to talk from the beginning and behave as if you are a stranger you do not know, so it is a good idea to use this as a landmark.

#Home ringing #rap sound

Have you ever had the experience of sounding crisps and tinglings coming out of nowhere when you are at home?

There is a great possibility that the house is aging, the growing tension due to the temperature difference, and it is the sound of the lives of the upper and lower residents.
However, the unnatural sound of the house (rap sound) may be the work of the ghost.

Demons can interfere badly with the human body and spirit.
If you are evil, you will be sick mentally and physically for some reason, or the disease will be prolonged, so you need to deal with it.

It is a good idea to ask a professional psychic (God, a yin-yang master, etc.) to get a purification, or to put this spirit on the house.
It is a common story that the disease heals as soon as you reject the ghost.

2023 is the year of the U.S., so I wrote a rabbit-shaped reifu.

It is a place that opens the gate and goes out into the world.
It is a spring branch, and it shows how new buds of plants and trees are sprouting. It has tenacity like a grass that stands up as many times as you want, whether you are stepped on or stepped on.

2023 is the year when an era ends.
It will be a year of great change.
Keep your feet on the ground, be tenacious, have faith, and spend your time peacefully. The future ahead is bright.

The Son takes the root of the fruit to the righteousness of the earth.

The ox is an omission of 'ruo-i,' and the fruit is included in the water of the water, and it makes it a reason to de-cancer the back of the tree.

Tora opens the door, pulls out the back of the fruit, and sprouts, but it makes sense.

Uma is a fruit sprouting by omitting "birth", as if it were a raw fruit and a good way to do it

The saga is derived from the Chinese legendary holy king, Usa. It has been used for rituals, spiritual unity, and ascetic practices since ancient times.

In addition, 禹歩 is also used in the "Katagae ritual" held at the end of the year. It is said that this ritual will exorcise the evil spirit for a year, and that it will not be adversely affected by the direction in the following year.

There are various phenomena caused by celestial bodies, but among them, the North Star has been worshipped since ancient times as "sono".

There are seven stars that mainly assist the king (North Star) on the side.

The seven stars are considered to be the most closely related in human life. The names of the seven stars are devour, geikamon, rokusen, literati, 廉貞, 武曲, and 破軍.

These stars are in charge of the staff. Those who worship these stars and copy the Futate, or those who remember it, should use it with a spell for each star.

The Big Dipper is a general term for the famous stars that appear in the north. Since it is a guardian star related to each person, I will write the details here and tell them.

In addition, it is written that this seven stars are extremely important when using the technique of the direction "Hachimon teruko_jmyg It is a gimmicky figure that is used in the magic of the eight-quaiped sword event method.

It is also said to be effective for physical and mental illness and mental disorders.

With his right hand, he tied a sword with a sword and thought deeply, "It's a sword, it's a sword, and I draw a picture in the air toward the person who was under the influence.
There is a procedure to draw a picture, so I will explain it in the circle of note in the future.

teruko_jmyg

teruko_jmyg It is a secret shugo-fu that is said to have been handed down to the tribe and the Inbe family, which carried the rituals of the ancient Imperial Court.

Possession of this sacred mark prevents you from becoming involved in natural disasters such as water, fire, rain, and thunder, as well as violence and crime, and it is said that demons, evil spirits, and beasts are also not feared enough.

The pattern is different on the back and back of the guardian sign, and this is the pattern on the back.

teruko_jmyg It is a sacred letter that connects a sword mark and writes it in the designated place of the body.
In that case, I will recite a special secret. I will explain the place where to write and secret in the note.

The savior is in pain at the place where the letter is written.

Possession can be just a "imagination", so it is unexpectedly difficult to distinguish whether it is true or not.
Therefore, by using this secret art, it becomes relatively easy to understand whether the spirit is possessed by the other party.

Even if you are a dog monkey, let's aim for the relationship of Plume Zero first, and gradually increase your likability.

teru teruko_jmyg It is a reconciling spirit that makes the discord of the couple and make the harmony of the couple harmoniously.

If you live under one roof, it is natural that there is a difference. It is okay if you prepare a means of reconciliation in advance.

I think there are times when I feel somewhat heavy, irritated, or slack in my body.
If it was caused by uncleanness, go to the shrine or use a reifu to purify your mind and body, and you will feel refreshed as if it were sunny.

初めまして、こんにちは。
Twitterからこちらに伺い、この霊符をはじめ、合計４枚ほどを印刷して飾らせていただいております☺️

頂戴した霊符を４枚をA4に１枚にコラージュし、額に入れて見えるように飾っていたところ、霊符のしたため方のnoteを読んで、見えるように飾ってはダメなのか？少し混乱してしまい霊符の上に違う絵柄の紙を被せて絵を飾っているように飾り直しました。

しかし、てる子様のアートとしても楽しんでいただけると言う言葉を拝見すると、見えるように飾っても良いのかな？と悩んでおります。自分としては見えるように飾りたい気持ちです。

もし良かったら教えていただけると助かります✨🙏✨

nish nishimuraseizo Today, there was a report of trouble from our staff, and when I went to apologize to the customer, I carefully looked at this spirit mark and visited, and the problem was solved so easily that it was amazing.
I was wondering what would happen because I was a customer who was not very good with the relationship recently, but I really appreciate it.

instant.angels てる子先生、霊符の効果が出ました。先日、不要品を霊符をチラ見してから売りに行きました。値が付いてもせいぜい8千円位かと予想してましたが、結果的に3倍以上で売れました。霊符のお力に感謝致します。独り占めはバチが当たるので、一部を犬猫保護の方に寄付しました。ありがとうございました。

There is always, there is.
I met this spirit at the former three major masters hall of Wakamatsu-ji Temple, and I stuck it on the outside of the entrance from yesterday.
I will report it to you if I have any experience.
